-dominated field. One of our special treats will feature Carol Shelton, recently honored as "Winemaker of the Year." Carol has invited us to meet with her at the winery for a visit, tasting and tour. We will have two and a half days full of private winery tours, tastings and gourmet food as well as plenty of free time to explore and relax in spectacular Napa Valley!

Lodging will be at the Napa Valley Lodge www.napavalleylodge.com conveniently located in Yountville ... a charming town with great restaurants and shops. Spouses and friends are welcome!

Please see complete itinerary and reservation information at: www.travelsmartpartners.com/aauw or contact TravelSmart for details.

Holiday on the Hudson December 2010

See some of the fabulous homes on the Hudson River, America's castles, decorated for the holidays. Enjoy refreshments and traditional holiday décor. Some of the homes currently in negotiations are Lyndhurst (America's finest Gothic Revival mansion and a remarkable example of the Hudson River's grand and historic estates), Washington Irving's Sunnyside, and Van Courtland Manor, a National Historic Landmark.

Next stop...New York City, where we're finalizing plans for some fabulous events as well as free time (to finish some holiday shopping perhaps?).

Your trip includes Welcome and Farewell Dinners, transportation and lunches while touring, entry fees, taxes and tips to guides and drivers. Spouses and friends are welcome!

Details and pricing will be posted on the website www.travelsmartpartners.com/aauw once arrangements have been finalized and are available by request at TravelSmart.

Tour participation will be limited to 12.

Kentucky Derby May 4-8, 2011

Derby time in Kentucky is more than a horse race ... it's a 3-week event! Come with us and sample some of the "tastes" of this historic event and experience the most exciting two minutes in sports. Sip a Mint Julep while watching the races in your reserved seat!

Besides the Derby, we'll tour a horse farm, travel a bit of the famous "Bourbon Trail," sample some authentic Southern hospitality and enjoy the beautiful countryside in this, the best time of the year in Kentucky.

This tour is guaranteed to sell out quickly, so if you have any interest, please let us know as soon as possible.

Pricing and details will be posted on www.travelsmartpartners.com/aauw by late Spring of 2010, and will be available by request. Contact TravelSmart today to reserve your space!

As always, your tour includes Welcome and Farewell Dinners, transportation and lunches while touring, entry fees, taxes and tips to guides and drivers. Spouses and friends are welcome!
